

Das ist Versicherung.

Quality-conscious. Service-oriented. Consequent

HDI is shaping the domestic market as an innovative and fast insurer. The Austrian HDI Versicherung AG is part of the Talanx Group. With premium income of € 34.9 billion (2018) and around 20,800 employees, Talanx is one of the largest European insurance groups. The Hannover-based group is active in more than 150 countries. HDI Austria has branches in Czechia, Hungary and Slovakia. The Austrian customers are served via the head office in Vienna, via the regional head offices, via the Internet and through independent insurance brokers and agents. With 297 employees, HDI manages a total premium volume of € 204 million in Austria, Czechia, Hungary and Slovakia.

Since 1983, HDI Versicherung has been active in Austria as a performance and quality-oriented property and liability insurer. Initially known primarily for its expertise in the industrial sector, the company is rapidly evolving and, starting in 1990, is expanding its field of activity in the residential and industrial vehicle sector. In 1996, the accident, legal protection and home divisions are added.

In 2018, the rating agency Standard & Poor's repeatedly rated HDI Versicherung AG with the rating "A" and the outlook "stable".

Further information can be found at www.hdi.at